PEP CLUB

Pep Club is open to everyone in all four classes. Pep Club has been popular in past years for a good reason—out of homeroom and a reason to go to basketball games. Recently, Pep Club has been trying to broaden out and get the students to support soccer, volleyball, and wrestling just as well. We have as much reason to be proud of these sports as we do basketball.

BONJOUR MES AMIES

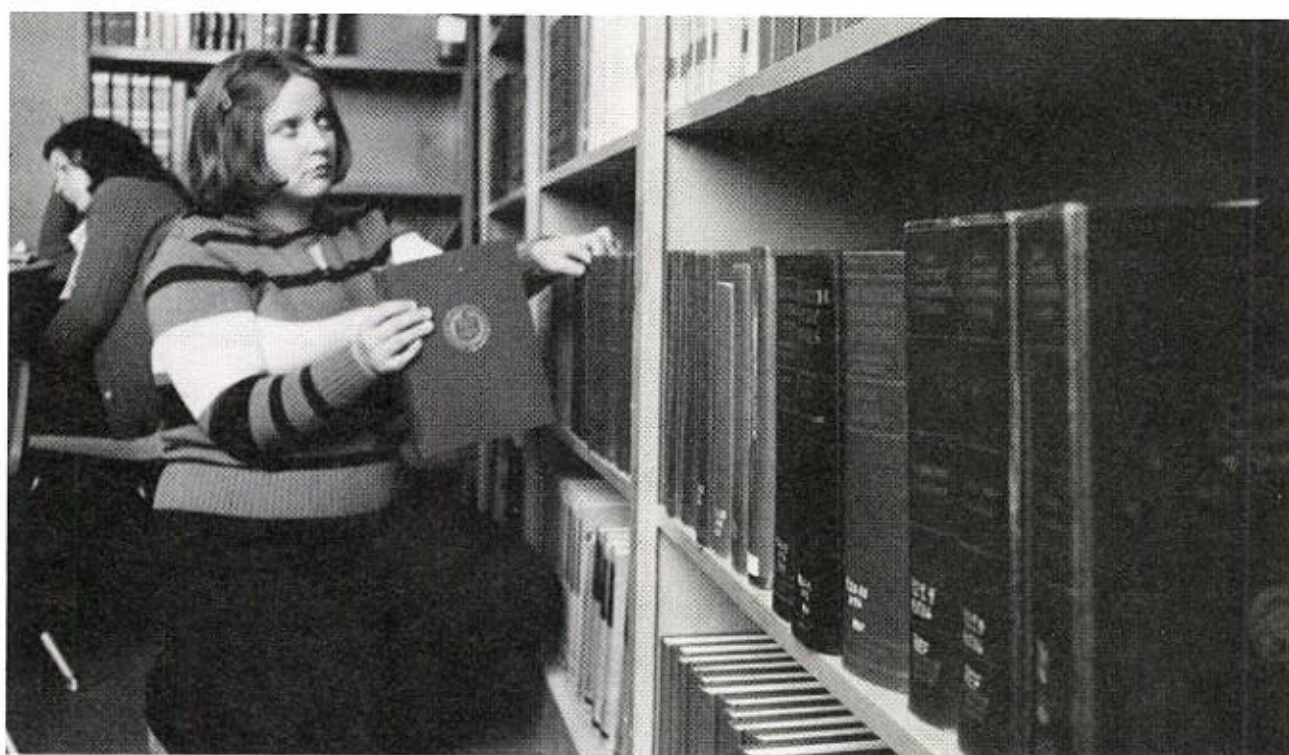

The 1977-78 French Club year was productive and lots of fun. Fall brought new officers Kim Rucker, Pres.; Julie Stegman, V.Pres.; Sheri Tomlin, Treas.; and Janet Kember, Sec. The club's first project was the Halloween Dance held October 28. The tunes were provided by Foggy River and best costume went to Martha Butterfield in a fluff of crepe paper. With combined efforts, thirty French club members and sponsor Miss McKirgan enjoyed a dinner at LaCheminee, a French restaurant in Chicago. It was truly an excellent year!

MEDIA AIDES

YOUR BOOK IS OVERDUE

The Media Aides have many responsibilities in the Media Center. They check out books and help students locate books on the shelves, as well as keeping the books straightened and in order. The Aides also file magazines and put out the daily newspapers. Media Aides must spend one half hour a day in the library carrying out these duties and at the end of the year are given $\frac{1}{4}$ credit. Thanks for all the help!

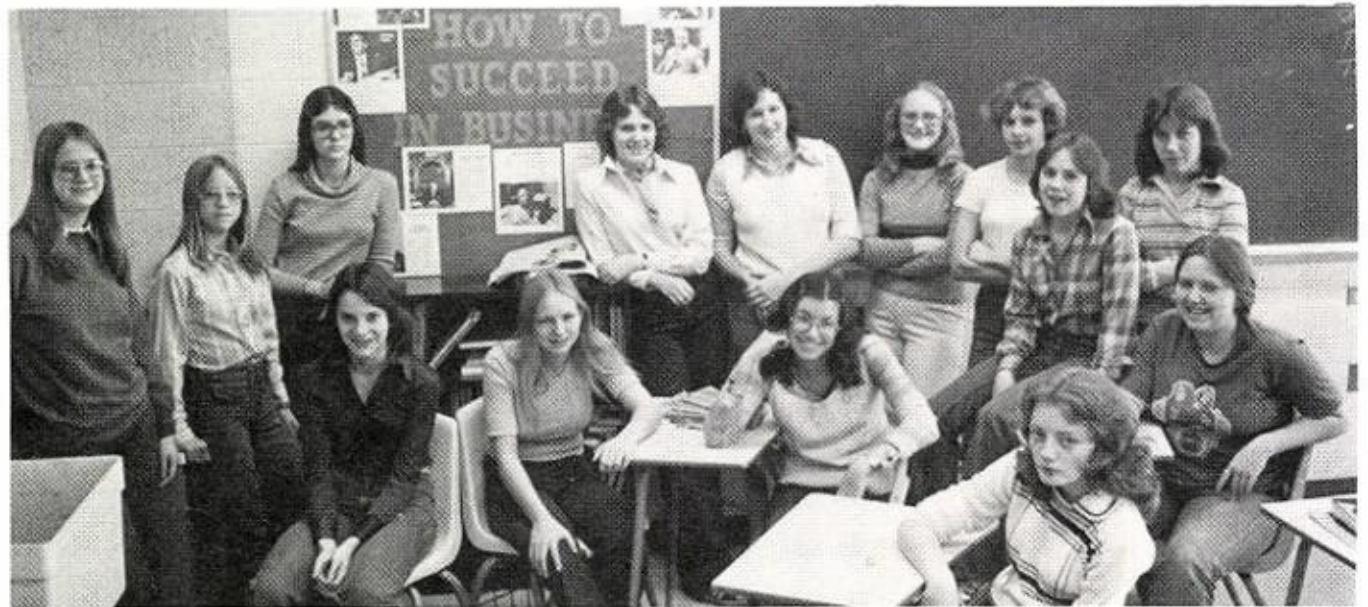

STUDENT SECRETARIES

GO RUN THIS OFF

The Student Secretaries had two raffles this year. They were a Turkey Raffle and a Dinner Raffle. They went to a dinner at Hank's with the money they made. They will also sponsor the Student Secretaries Business Award at the end of the year.

If you are in the market for a summer job, there are many possibilities which you could look into. Before you decide positively on any one job, however, it would be a good idea to consider the availability of different jobs.

Some of the most available jobs

If you prefer to stay in out of the summer heat, there are also jobs which you could work at indoors. Some examples of these would be working as a waiter, waitress, or other personnel at McDonald's, Burger King, or other restaurants, working as a clerk at

SENIOR FEATURE:

FOUR YEAR ATHLETE

by: Kim Rucker

Sue Yonke has been very active in athletics since grade school. In high school, she has been involved in all girls' sports that Serena has to offer.

The newspaper staff worked diligently this year to put out four first-rate issues of the Hotsheet. On May 23 they toured the Open Door Print Shop where the paper is printed and had a picnic at Sonnausk Forest Preserve. Hard work provided good reading for Serena High students.

Sue also said that she had the most fun on the team.

Sue feels that Serena has a good girls' athletic program. She says that Coach Pfau is one of the best coaches she's had, "she really knows her stuff."

Sue said that Al Stegman has helped a great deal in sports by going to meets and supporting the team.

In the future, Sue plans to go into Athletic Training. We wish Sue the best of luck, and we're glad she has contributed to Serena.

I CAN SMILE WITHOUT YOU

That's for you, Gaby.

To everyone else that headline might sound a bit spiteful or that it might be a missprint. It's neither, and I'll try to clear any questions. I had a terrible habit of always catching Gaby at a down moment. My reaction was to scold her. One day on such a moment in the lounge Barry Maudolin's song "I can't Smile Without You" came on and I proceeded to tell her how I couldn't agree with that song. We discussed how important smiles were to a person's health and wealth as well. Gaby was a little white bunny who had wandered too far to be able to run back. That is a frightening position to be in wherever you are. But she learned to smile and say "I can't Smile without you" and just in case you don't believe the part about smiling and the health and wealth just take a better look at that picture of her at the Junior-Senior Prom.

GABRIELA RAMIREZ VALASQUEZ

Being an exchange student in Serena has been an unforgettable experience for me. I have learned many things and have changed my idea of American people; I thought they were unfriendly, but I was mistaken. I have got many friends in the U.S. now, I will take all of them into my heart. It is time to almost go back to Columbia, and I have many feelings inside, many moments come to my mind and I would like to find words to show them.

Studying at Serena High School was wonderful and useful to me; fortunately, whenever I needed something, I found a person ready to help me. Throughout this six months that I have been here, I have got many friends and have joined happiness and sadness with them.

I also found very nice teachers who helped me and understood me a lot, and I thank them and everybody for being nice to me.

I will never forget my homeroom time with Mr. Klien and his jokes which cheered me up many times, my moments in the library—my favorite place at school, and many other things.

I would like to come back some day, but not in the winter time, once is enough. I know what cold exactly means.

Finally, I will always remember my little town, Serena, its school, and its very nice people.

With Love,

Gabriela Ramirez V.

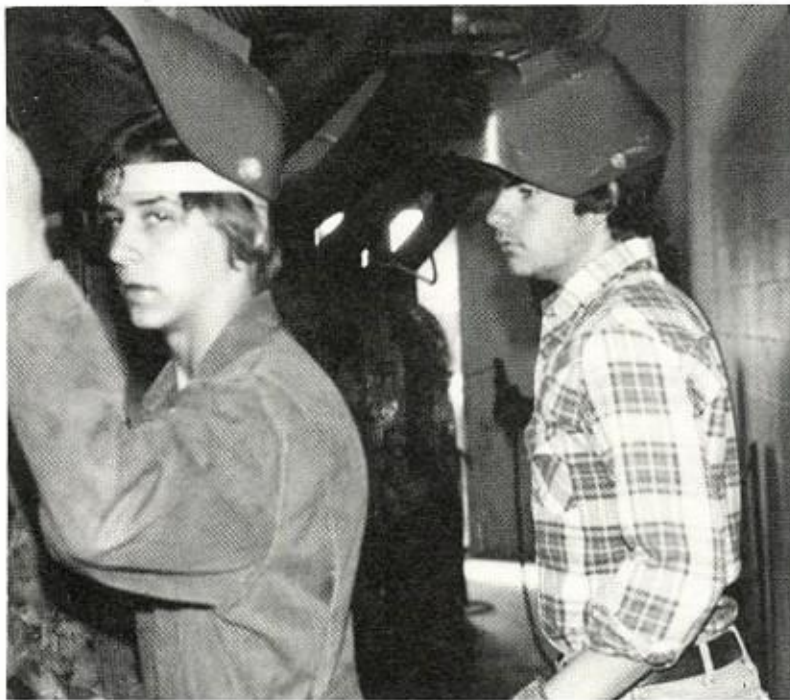

VOCATIONAL STUDENTS

The vocational Students leave Serena to Sandwich to IVVC, Illinois Vally Vocational Center every morning. There they are given the choices of Welding, carpentry, machine mechanics, auto mechanics, electricity, foods health, graphic arts, and a few others I've missed.

Juniors and Seniors are eligible for this chance and if you're not college bound this is something you should look into. The students are taught how to do their selected vocation then they are free to work on that vocation.

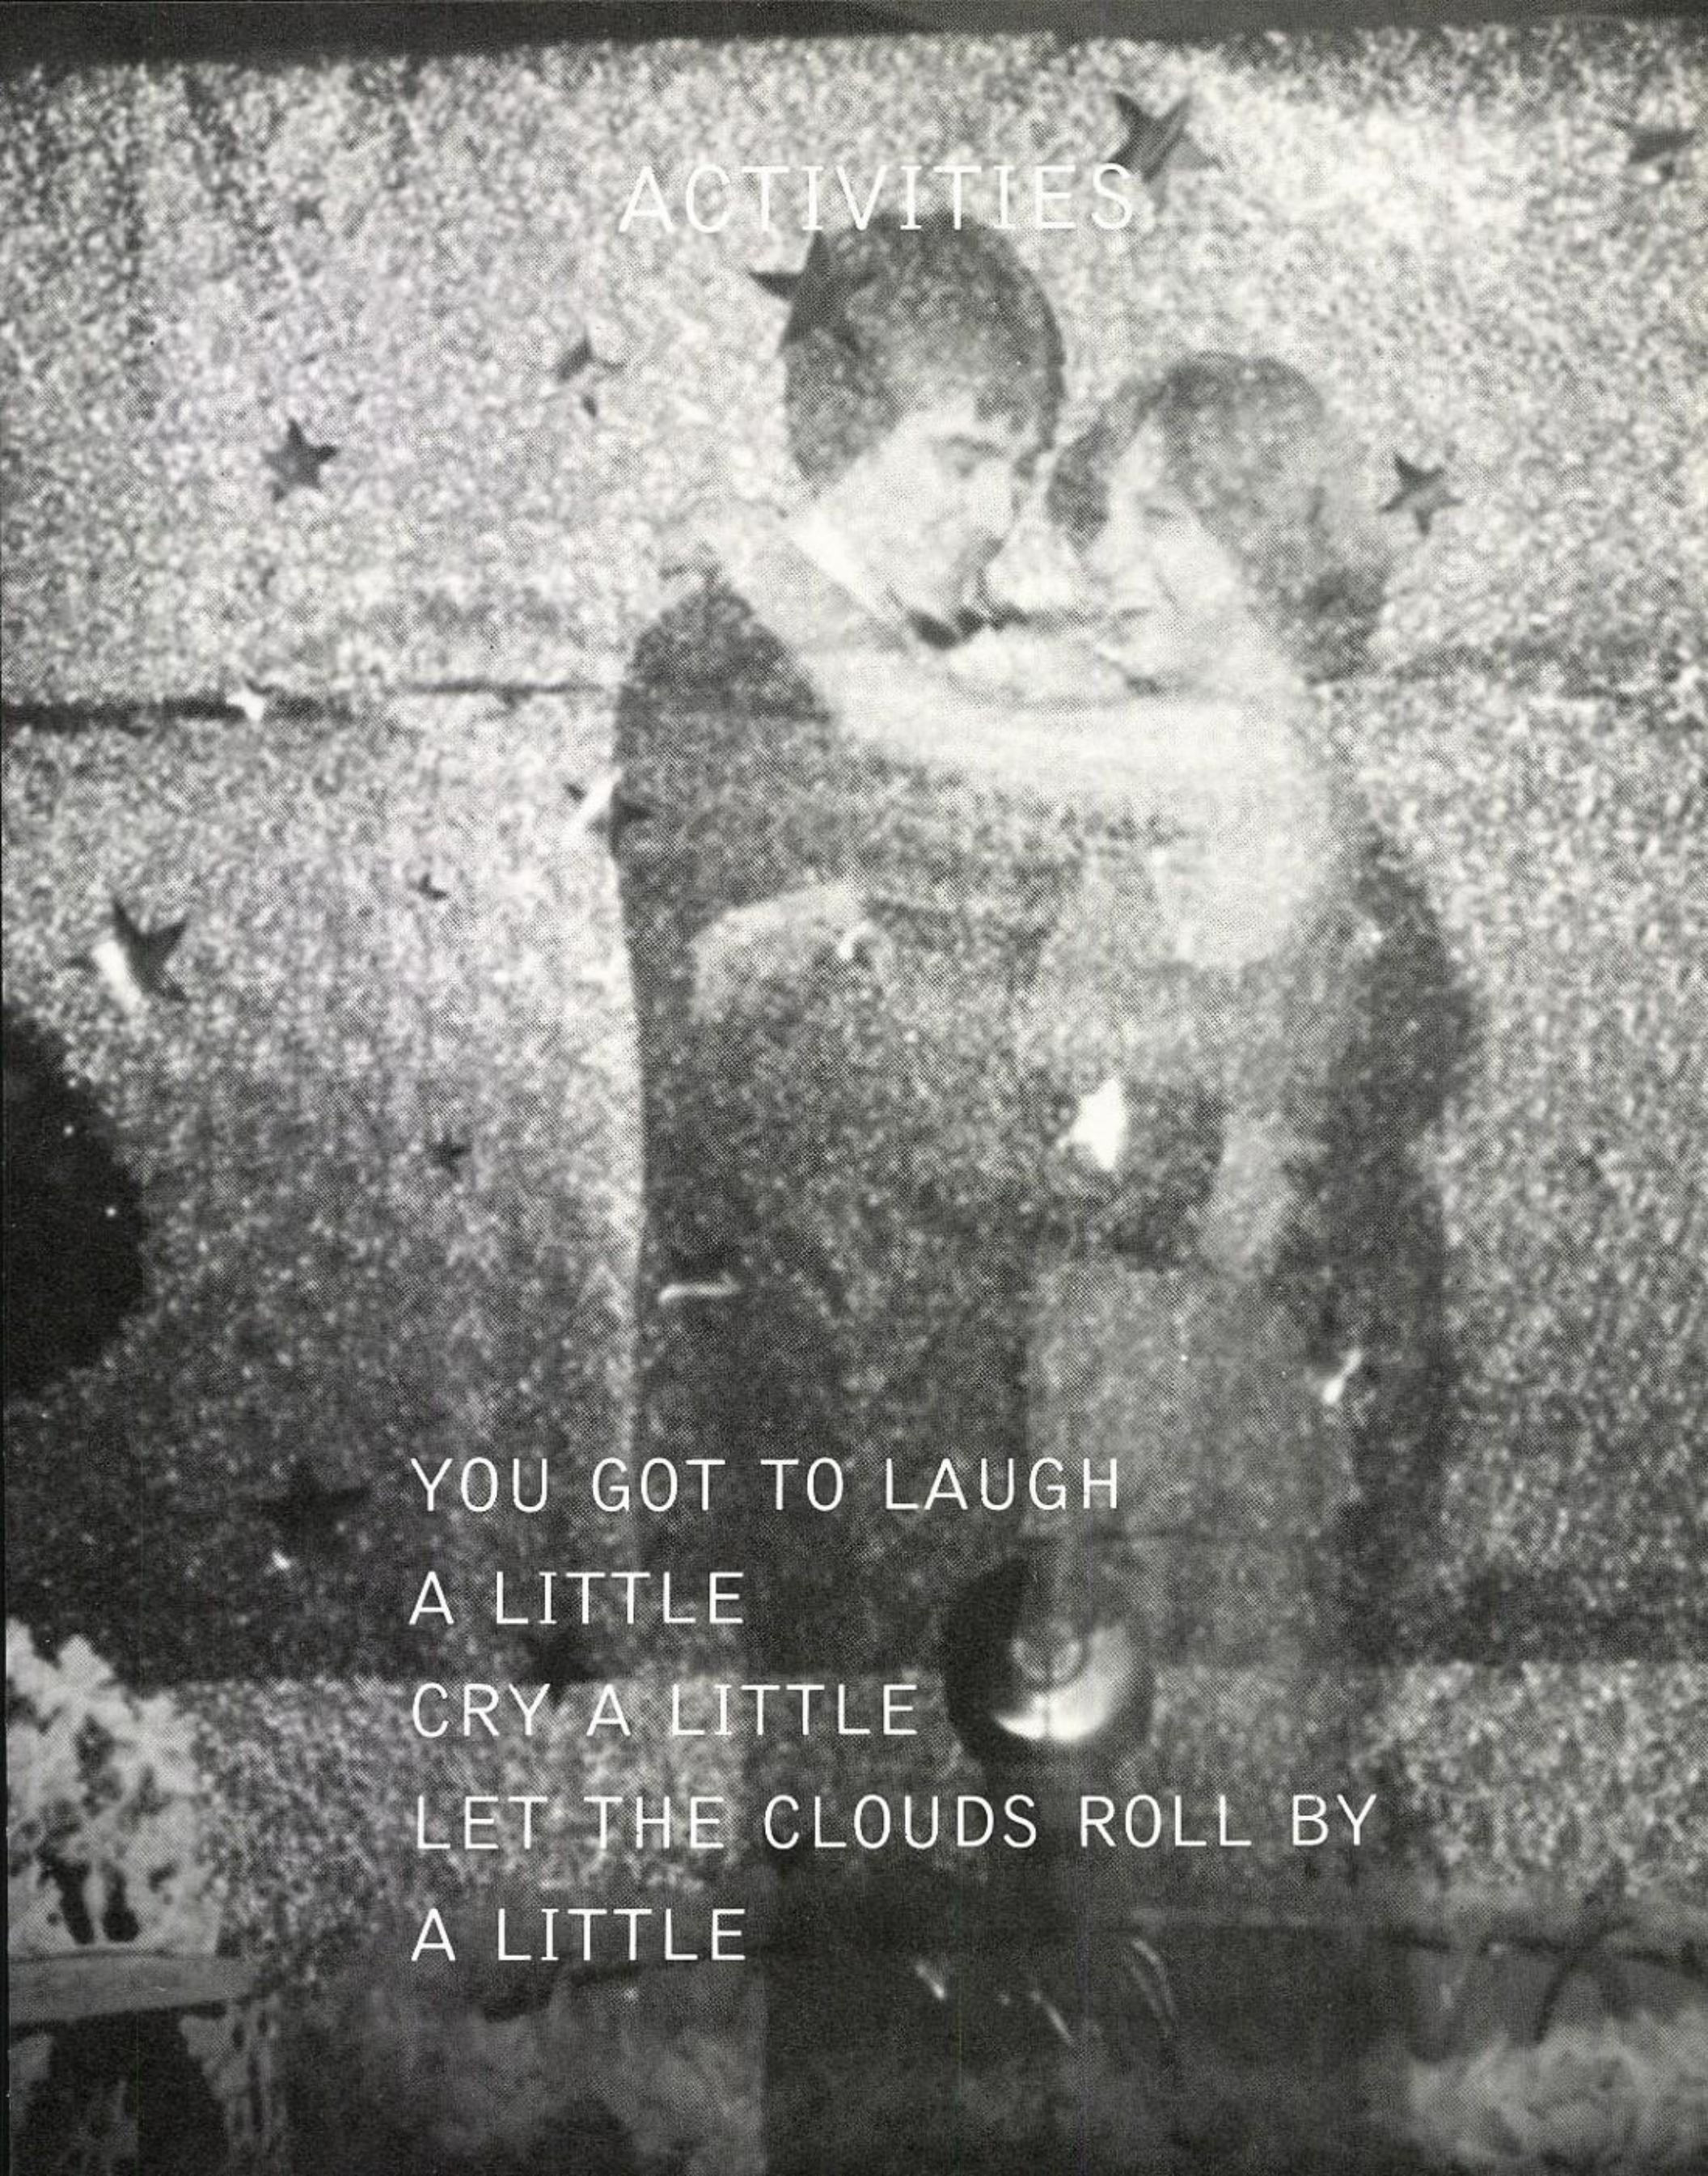

It is a great way to meet kids from other schools also.

Some people find it shocking with your masks up, boys.

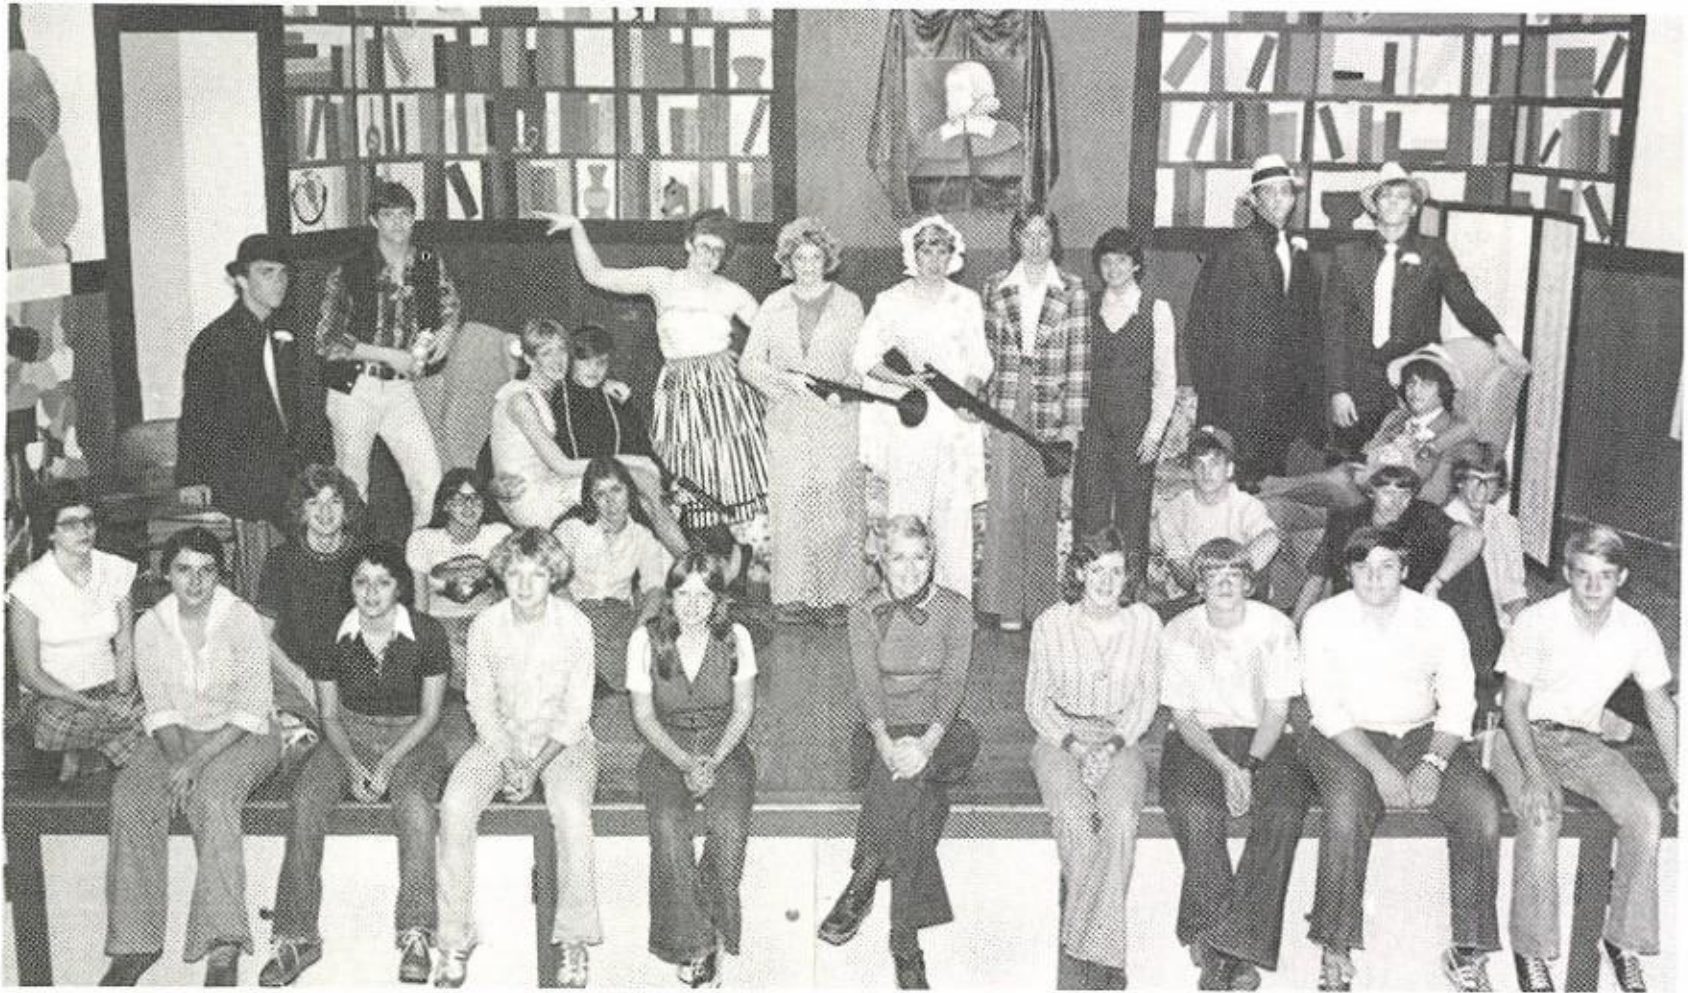

Cathy, sure it's funny, but what if someone bites into that bandaid you lost in that soup.

SENIOR PLAY

The Senior Play, TEA AND ARSENIC, delighted audiences November 4 and November 5 in the High School gymnasium. The play was directed by Miss Maureen Wolfe. Counterfeit money made from missing printing plates turns up at two old ladies' boarding house. Two gansters, posing as government agents, arrive on the scene to "straighten out the mess." One of them is poisoned by the old ladies' wine. You can imagine the hysteria when several investigations begin to take place at once.

YEARBOOK DANCE

Despite delays in the arrival of the yearbooks, the Yearbook Dance was a success. The dance was held on October 14 from 6:30 to 9:30. The band, Independence, was enjoyed by those in attendance, including the 1977 seniors who came back to have their books signed and to talk to their classmates.

Having a wild and crazy time.

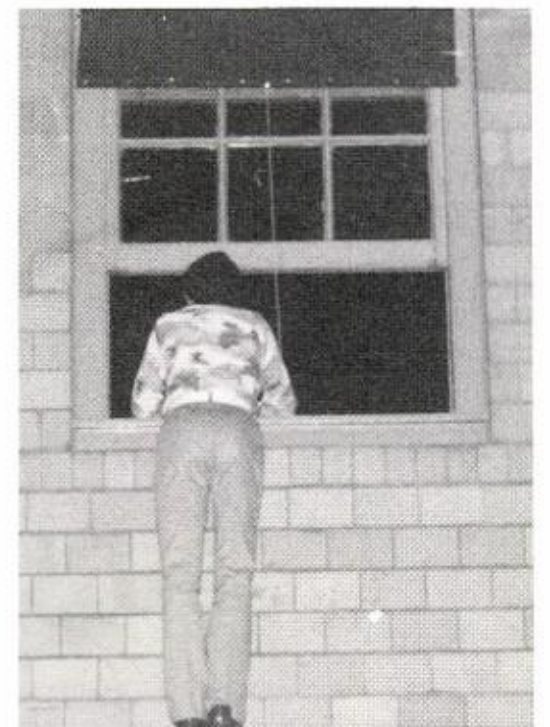

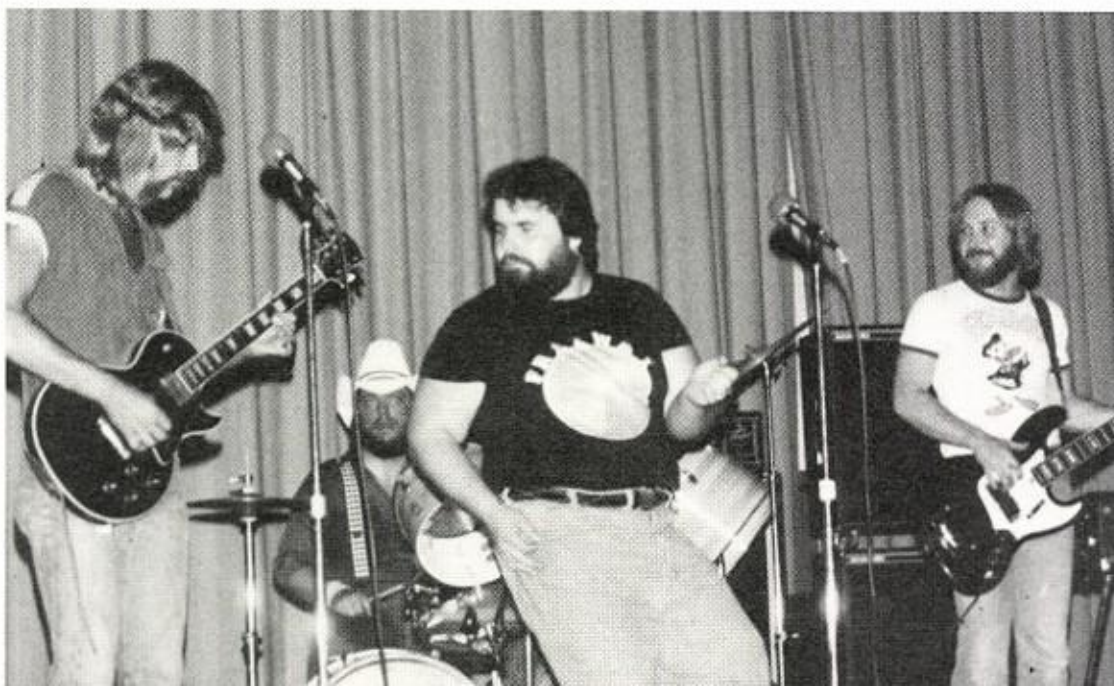

What will I be doing this time next year?

I wish those yearbooks would get here!!

HALLOWEEN DANCE

UNCLE SAM

The annual Halloween Dance, sponsored by the French Club, was held October 28 from 7:00 to 10:00 with music by the Foggy River Band. There were many excellent costumes worn by students vying for the "Best Costume" award. This year's winner was Martha Butterfield with her version of Serena's "Close Encounter."

SWEETHEART BALL

The FFA-FHA 1978 Sweetheart Ball was held February 18th in the grade School gym. The theme was "Hearts and Flowers" and the band "Thrashers" played. Reed Hall and Gwen Wiley were crowned King and Queen. Freshman attendants were Kelly Tuftie and Craig Larson, Sophomore attendants were Betsy Parker and Joe Hanley, and Junior attendants were Lou Kyle and Jay Kember.

A few words by the M.C., a toast to the night and then the feast begins.

I'd say Lonny just saw a delicious little dessert. I wonder who she was.

Don't be shy, Brian—Chow down!

The feast is over, everyone has a full belly and is ready for the gaiety to begin. Who else but Newlin to start it all?

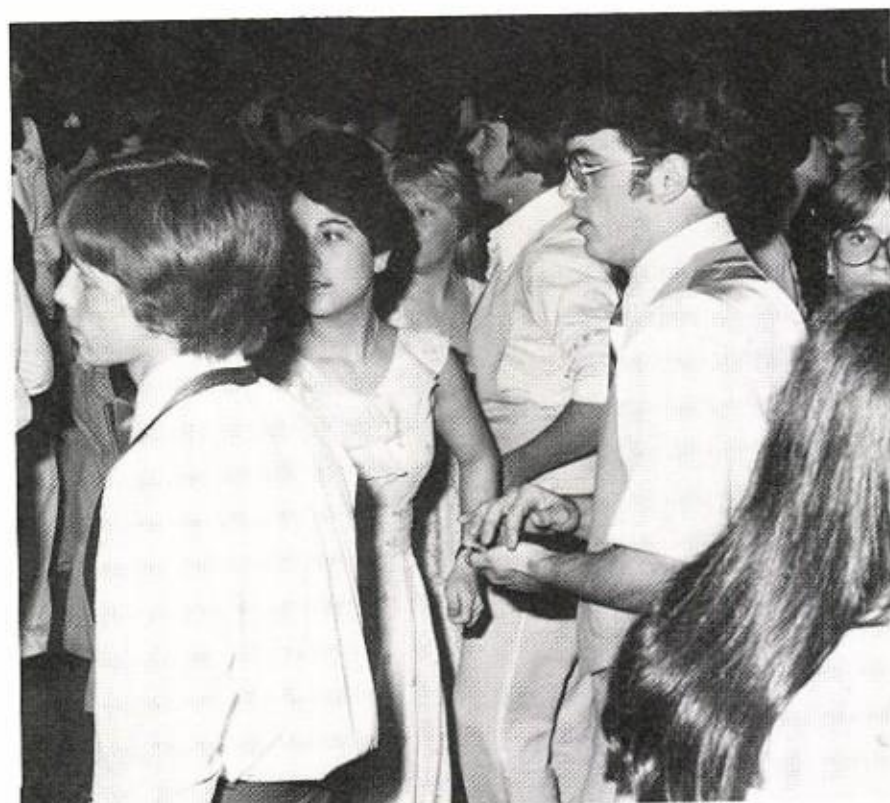

There were songs to be sung . . .

And there were moments to be remembered and dances to be danced.

I am I, Do not change me,
Condemn me, nor put me down.
Accept me for what I am.
No . . . you need not agree with me.
But accept me—for I am total in being.
I have my faults, I have my guilts,
But that is who I am . . . perfect I will never be.
Allow me to be uninhibited.
Do not pressure me into feeling what I do not feel.
Accept me when I'm flying high, do not put me down. . .
Nor make me feel unhappy about me.
I am I and I like being what I am—ME!

When the sheriff walked in and reported 4 escapes from Mercyville Center and asked if they were present, and would they acknowledge themselves, this is what happened.

Actually, I thought these characters looked more like what the sheriff was after.

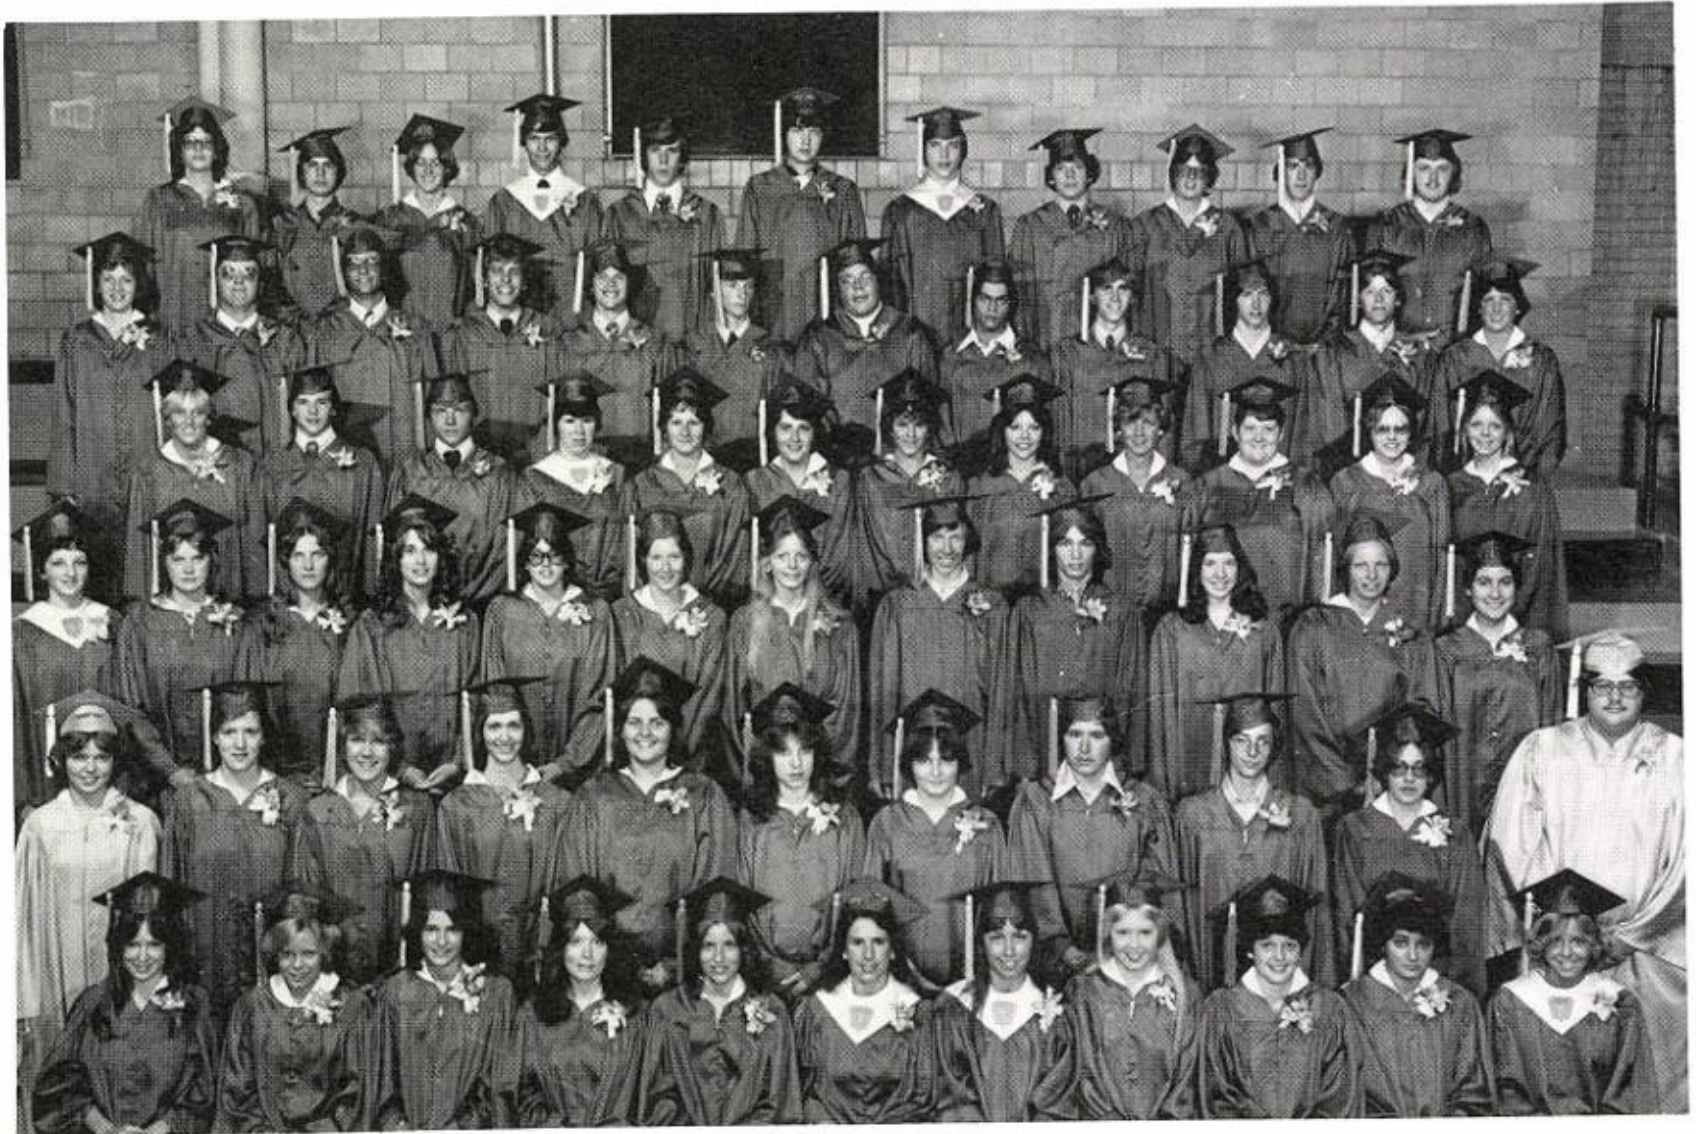

Prom is so romantic.

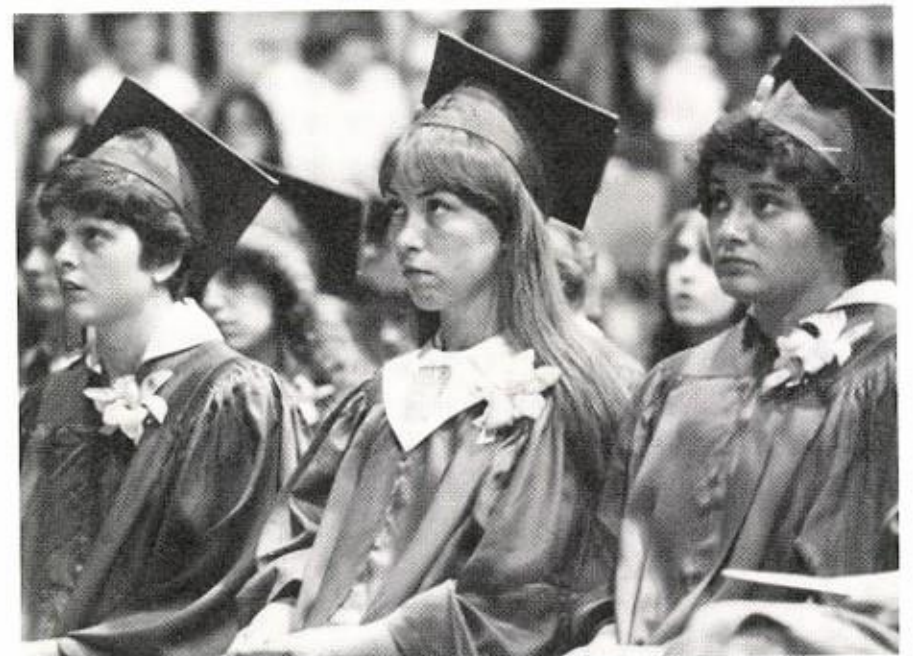

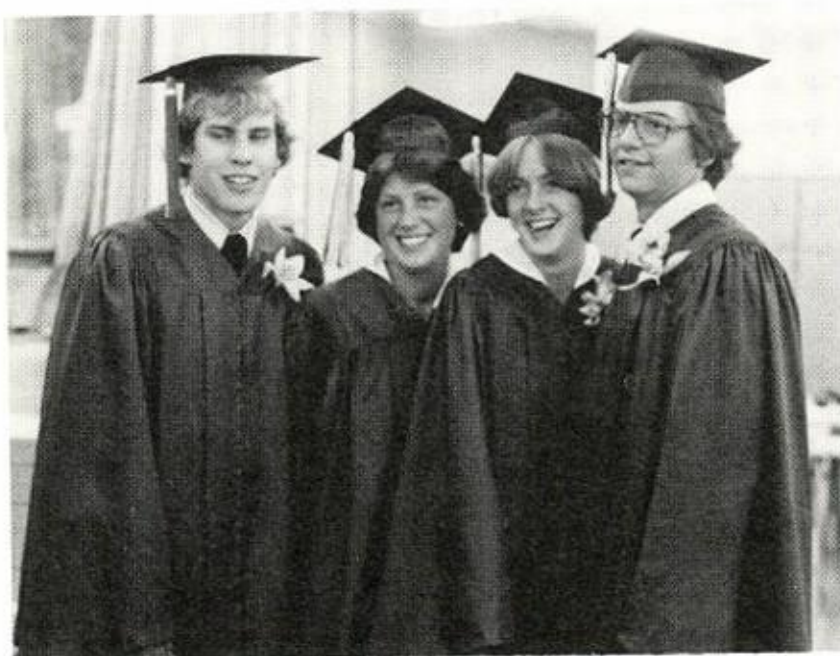

We should have dance like this more often!??

Her love is like a fire burning inside
Her love is so much higher
It can't be denied
She sends us her glory;
It's always been there
Her love is all around us
It's there for you and me to share
How is it we are here?
